FOREWORD

UGC HRDC of Aligarh Muslim University provided an unparalleled experience to the faculty of Teerthanker Mahaveer University. The short term training program organised by the Centre of Academic Leadership and Education Management (CALEM) under the scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching on Academic Leadership was one of its kind organised in TMU which left a lasting impression in the minds of the academicians who attended it.

This short term course in Academic Leadership was designed to help the faculty understand the prowess of learning and thereby optimising the leadership qualities required. We are extremely grateful to Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of Aligarh Muslim University, for sanctioning the training program to our institution. We are extremely grateful to Prof. A. R. Kidwai, Director, HRDC of AMU for rendering this opportunity to our University.

It was a one of its kind training program organized in Teerthanker Mahaveer University for which the University shall ever be grateful to Prof. A.R. Kidwai, Director CALEM along with Dr. Faiza, Assistant Director, CALEM. Mr. Abrar Arshi, who came all the way from AMU to our University and coordinated the administrative work related to the training program; Mr. Tariq and Mr. Zamiruddin were of great support and helped a lot in coordinating this training program. The excellent team work of the AMU resource persons had woven the training program excellently well. We are grateful to Ministry of Human Resource Development for initiating the Centre of Academic Leadership and Education Management (CALEM) under the scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching to teach the academic administrators. This training session will go a long way in upgrading the academic leader in the larger interest of the society.

Visionaries like Sir Syed Ahmad Khan, Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya who established great centres of learning with a vision to promote higher education in the country. CALEM training program is doing the needful by organizing and spreading the knowledge across the academicians of the country so that higher education can reach the students in the manner which can produce desired results so as to take care of larger responsibilities tomorrow.

Organized by the Centre of Academic Leadership and Education Management (CALEM) under the scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers And Teaching, this short term course in Academic Leadership was designed to help the academic administrators maximize the leadership qualities they already possess and equip them with new strengths that will keep them well informed. It has a trickledown effect. The six day Training Program consisted of twenty four sessions including a session on Group Discussion.

The resource persons of this workshop were all stalwarts in their domain of knowledge. We are grateful to these resource persons for being a part of this endeavor of developing academic leaders in the true sense of term.

The six day long Training Program on Academic Leadership was inaugurated by Prof. Rakesh K. Mudgal, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Teerthanker Mahaveer University. The inaugural session of the six day Training Program on Academic Leadership was attended by forty one participants were academic administrators coming from diverse academic background.

Day 1 (25 July, 2018): Prof. Rakesh Mudgal, Vice Chancellor, TMU conducted two sessions. The first session was on "The Art and Science of Motivation" and another session on "Emotional Intelligence for Academic Administration". The sessions were conducted with the help of interesting exercises based on life skills.

Post-lunch, two sessions were conducted by Professor M. Muzammil, Former Vice Chancellor, Dr. B.R.A. University, Agra and a seasoned academician. The first session was on "Higher Education in India" and the second was on "Federal & State Systems of Higher Education in India". A seasoned academician, replete with knowledge from east and west lucidly explained the issues and challenges of higher education in India

Day 2 (26 July, 2018): - During the first two sessions, Prof. Parvaiz Talib delivered on "Leadership Strategies". During the third and fourth session "Group Work" was conducted. During the session he supplemented theory by live real life examples actually offered enough food for thought for the participants.

Day 3 (27 July, 2018): Professor D.N. Sansanwal Former Dean, Faculty of Education Devi Ahilya University, Inodre (MP), delivered the first session on Developing Research Capacities. The second session titled "Internationalization of Higher Education" was equally justified by him. The third and fourth sessions were conducted by him on the following two topics respectively: "High Impact Practices for Student Success" and; Reforms and "New initiatives in Higher Education".

Day 4 (28 July, 201): The first session was conducted by Prof. Rakesh Kr. Mudgal, Vice Chancellor, TMU on "Effective Communication".

The second and third sessions were conducted by Prof. Nazim Ali, Dean, F/o International Studies AMU, and Former Registrar, AMU on "Laws and Ethics for Indian Higher Education" and; "Institutional Excellence".

Fourth session was conducted by Prof. Rakesh Mudgal on "Emotional Intelligence for Academic Administration".

Day 5 (30 July, 2018): The first session was a Group Discussion on Training Needs Assessment" conducted by Prof. Vaishali Dhingra, College of Management, TMU.

The second, third and fourth sessions were conducted by Prof. M. Rihan, Department of Electrical Engineering, AMU on "Creating a Green Campus: Experiential lessons and insights"; "Sustainability". The fourth session was followed by a field visit to the roof top of a building of the university wherein solar panels have been installed. Prof. Rihan delivered a live demo about the generation of electricity via solar energy.

Day 6 (31 July, 2018): Three sessions were conducted by Dr. Rakesh Suri, Founder Director, Computer Shiksha, Gurgaon on "ICT and Higher Education" and; "Communication with key External Stakeholders". He conducted the session with the help of a number of interesting exercises, and interesting live role plays.

Day 6 (31 July, 2018): Valedictory Session-Emeritus Professor, Farhatullah Khan, Department of English, AMU. The seasoned academician emphasized on four pillars essential for an educational institution viz: pillar of knowledge, pillar of concepts, pillar of skills, and pillar of values. He said that that the universities must hire faculty who are conscious about three types of goals: 1. National; 2. Institutional; and 3. Individual.

The training program ended with a vote of thanks by Prof. Vaishali Dhingra who said that the university will be looking forward to more such programs intended for holistic developing the academicians and administrators of the university. She expressed her gratefulness to Aligarh Muslim University for extending this opportunity of learning to the academic leaders. She said on behalf of all the participants that the inputs provided by seasoned resource persons during this training program will go a long way in the academic development of the educational institutions they are associated with.
