FOREWORD

We are grateful to Aligarh Muslim University for providing us a learning opportunity under the aegis of UGC HRDC. The training program organised by the Centre of Academic Leadership and Education Management (CALEM) under the scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching on Academic Leadership provided a unique learning experience to the participants and left a lasting impression on the minds of the trainees who attended it.

The list of participants included principals, heads of departments from various colleges like and Management, Law etc. The diverse group provided enough food for thought in the discussions towards the end of each session.

We are extremely grateful to Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of Aligarh Muslim University, for sanctioning the training program to our institution. We are extremely grateful to Prof. A. R. Kidwai, Director, HRDC of AMU and Dr. Faiza Abbasi, Asst. Director, CALEM, HRDC, AMU for rendering this opportunity to our University.

It is the First training program organized in Unity P.G & Law College, Lucknow for which the College shall ever be grateful to Prof. A.R. Kidwai, Director CALEM along with Dr. Faiza, Assistant Director, CALEM, Mr. Tariq for guiding the procedural norms, Mr. Zulfikar, and Mr. Abrar Arshi who coordinated the administrative work related to the training program. The excellent team work of the AMU resource persons had woven the training program excellently well.

We are grateful to Ministry of Human Resource Development for initiating the Centre of Academic Leadership and Education Management (CALEM) under the scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching to teach the academic administrators. This training session will go a long way in upgrading the academic leader in the larger interest of the society.

EXECUTIVE SUMMERY

Visionaries like Sir Syed Ahmad Khan, Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya who established great centres of learning with a vision to promote higher education in the country. CALEM training program is doing the needful by organizing and spreading the knowledge across the academicians of the country so that higher education can reach the students in the manner which can produce desired results so as to take care of larger responsibilities tomorrow.

Organized by the Centre of Academic Leadership and Education Management (CALEM) under the scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers And Teaching, this short term course in Academic Leadership was designed to help the academic administrators maximize the leadership qualities they already possess and equip them with new strengths that will keep them well informed. It has a trickledown effect. The six day Training Program consisted of twenty four sessions including a session on Group Discussion.

The resource persons of this workshop were all stalwarts in their domain of knowledge. We are grateful to these resource persons for being a part of this endeavor of developing academic leaders in the true sense of term.
